THE NEED IS GREATER THAN THE COST

Occasionally a situation arises when the cost of a commodity or service is transcended by the actual need for it. The criminally high cost of winning wars may be classed in such a category. Slum clearance plans and increasing costs of public education are also considered in the light of their actual need rather than their cost. On a more personal level are the costs of medical attention to the family of a sick child or the treatment of a man injured in an automobile accident.

Such is the case in the election Tuesday calling for $750,000 in bonds to finance a hospital for the West Side. Both the opponents and proponents of the proposed West Valley Hospital have set forth numerous financial reasons for voting for or against the issue. Opponents of the proposed hospital have published figures in direct contradiction to those figures used by members of the hospital board. Whether the actual cost of the hospital is greater or lesser than the estimates of the hospital board, the fact remains that cost to the individual will be comparatively small.

Far more important to the residents of the district is the actual need for additional beds in the West Side area. The Santa Clara County Medical Association has cited the need for additional beds. Eighteen physicians practicing in the district have made a hearty endorsement of the plan. The State Bureau of Hosptals has pointed out the need for greater facilities. In spite of the opinions of these experts ,the opponents of the issue contend that the need for additional hospital beds is not great. These men ignore the fact that construction of a hospital in the West Side is directly in line with civilian defense plans for decentralization.

Opponents of the issue have stated that the present bed space and additional beds planned by the county hospital will more than care for the needs of the West Side. They apparently have overlooked the fact that a private citizen may not be admitted to the county hospital until he has exhausted the possibilities of gaining entrance to all other hospitals in the area. This very stipulation on patients who seek entrance to the county hospital proves the need for additional facilities.

One has only to ask the mother of a new born child if the cost of medical treatment and care was worth the birth, to recognize this need for additional hospital facilities.

Bearing these facts in mind, and after a thorough digest of all available information on the issue, both pro and con, the Press recommends a "Yes" vote in the hospital band eelction Tuesday, September 18.

HELP CAMPBELL TO HELP YOUR CHILD

September 24 marks the opening of the Campbell Community Service Fund Drive. Purpose of the fund raising campaign is to provide funds for the library, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Campfire Girls and YMCA youth groups. Funds to provide milk to needy children in Campbell area grammar schools and funds for the Visiting Nurses Association are also included.

It is not our purpose here to plead for funds for these organizations. We believe that people of the Campbell area are fully cognizant of the worth and accomplishments of these groups in helping and guiding children and members of their own families.

It is appropriate however, to remind the residents of the area of one of the oldest axioms of social life—the duty of each man and woman to care and provide for his own family. This duty is one which cannot be taken lightly and brushed aside with a few passing remarks. Most of the basic actions of man are based on his responsibility to his family.

In a similar manner, the actions of a community are based on its responsibility to the residents which inhabit it. The Community Service Fund Drive has as its prime objective, the care and guidance of the youth of the Campbell area.

Residents who work in other areas and make their full community chest donations there have no justification in expecting the Campbell Community Service Fund to maintain its responsibility to the youth of the area. This thoughtless habit is endangering the whole program of aid to the youth of the community. Money spent in other communities goes toward the support of programs in those communities and not the support of Campbell children.

Even though the father works in some other community, his children go to school and participate in recreation programs in Campbell. In years past, volunteer solicitors were met time and again with the excuse that individuals had already given in some other community where they worked. All of these workers were volunteers and were asking for donations to help your own children. In refusing this request, individuals are denying their own the children the help and enjoyment which can be offered them.

These very people who are refusing their own children benefits which they gain through the Community Service Fund are shirking their duties as parents and forgetting their responsibility to the community of which they are a part.

Ninety nine percent of all funds collected in the Campbell area go to the assistance of local organizations. All the workers are unpaid and the only expense of the campaign are office supplies and a small amount of secretarial help.

This year think of your children first and give to the Campbell Community Service Fund Drive before considering campaigns in other communities.

INCORPORATION QUESTION AND ANSWER COLUMN

Q. Are the present boundaries of the proposed City of Campbell adequate from a tax standpoint?

A. Of the 304 incorporated cities within the State of California at the present time, there are more than 150 cities that are smaller than Campbell in both assessed valuation and population. The present boundaries of Campbell are not small. They compare very favorably with most of the average sized cities of the state.

Q. As the law calls for a certain number or amount of officers for a new city, how then can the proponents of incorporation say we could get along on a "skeleton crew."?

A. The law calls for the election of five members of the city council, a city clerk and city treasurer. The law does not specify that certain other officials must be elected. It is therefore possible to combine several non-elective offices.

Is it true that a small group of Campbell businessmen promoted the move for incorporation?

A. It is not. The original proponents of incorporation consisted of quite a large group of representative Campbell businessmen, laborers, housewives, ministers and professional men. For more detailed information on your question we will herewith reprint the names of the members of the general committee for incorporation: L. W. Harmon, A. J. Emery, E. E. Lanphear, E. C. Merrill, J. R. Locke, R. E. Schaefle, J. M. Dahl, Leslie Kerr, Don Reinoehl, Oliver Jensen, Russel Kennedy, Arthur Mayo, Joseph Gomes, Mark Purmort, E. A. Garrison, Herbert M. Shadle, Mrs. Ted Solari, Col. S. S. Stocking, Carl B. Field, Walter Silberbauer, Gilbert Krug, Tom Burnett, F. J. Meyer, Jr., George Egling, Harold Estensen, Robert Seligson, Jack Marsh, David Rutherford, Anthony Raffanti, Charles Chubb, Rex Kaber, Mrs. Charles Chubb, Ben Strong, W. Earl Hamilton, Mrs. Tom Burnett E. W. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Nanessy, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Myring.

Q. How will incorporation affect the planning commission? What happens between the time we take over and the county loses control?

A. This period will be governed by the county government as at present.

FIRE DISTRICT TAX RATE SET

E. C. Merrill, chairman of the board of directors of the Campbell Fire District, stated this week that the tax assessment for this year has been set at $0.33 per $100 assessed valuation. The new rate is an increase of $0.11.1 over the $0.21.9 rate of last year. "The raise in the rate is due to our plan to pay off the balance owing on the new firehouse this year," Merrill stated. "Actually, the rate is comparatively low considering that we are paying off a debt of $8,500 on the new building."

The $8,500 allowed in the budget is the only amount which the taxpayers have been directly assessed to pay on the $28,000 new firehouse. Balance of the funds came from the sale of the old firehouse and surplus funds from preceding years.

The new fire district tax is based on an assessed valuation of $3,687,660 for the district. Last year's valuation was $3,357,710.

Both Sides Of Hospital Issue Are Discussed

Committee Says Hospital Need In West Valley Area Is Not Critical

The Taxpayers Committee of the West Valley Hospital District, which is opposing the proposed $750,000 bond issue, claims that the need for hospital facilities in the district is not critical, and that the construction and operation of the hospital as proposed would place an unjustifiable tax burden on the citizens of the West Valley Hospital District, which includes Cupertino, Saratoga, Campbell and Los Gatos.

Upon completion of present hospital expansion programs already under way, the available bed capacity in San Jose will be 1,015 beds, enough to serve a population of 225,000 citizens, at the ratio of 4.5 beds per thousand population, which is recommended by the Federal government. This does not include any expansion of County Hospital facilities, nor does the figure include the Permanente Foundation, which is reported to be negotiating for a site on which to build a new hospital.

There is considerable room for argument, say opponents, on the basis of critical need, inasmuch as hospital facilities today are serving more than twice as many people as they did before the war, when maternity and surgical cases were hospitalized for ten days or two weeks, or even longer. Today good medical practice tends toward shorter periods of hospitalization.

After considerable research into the matter of hospital construction costs, members of the Taxpayers Committee have challenged the statements of hospital proponents regarding the cost figures which have been presented. The Association of Western Hospitals and the California State Bureau of Hospitals clearly indicate that the cost of building and equipping the West Valley Hospital will exceed the $750,000 which the hospital trustees contend is adequate. Hospital costs, according to these sources, run between $18,000 and $22,000 per bed, figures which are substantially higher than the $15,000 per bed hospital proponents are claiming.

Members of the Taxpayers Committee of the West Valley Hospital District firmly believe that a 50-bed hospital cannot be self-supporting, and would therefore place an added burden on the taxpayers to make up operating deficits.

Extensive surveys of hospital operating costs reveal that the average cost to the hospital per patient day is $23.07. The trustees of the West Valley Hospital propose to charge residents of the district from $2 to $3 less per day than prevailing rates. To break even, the West Valley Hospital must have an average occupancy of not less than 37 patients at the full rate.

By their own admission, trustees of the district made two random checks on the number of patients from the West Valley District who were in San Jose hospitals. On one occasion there were 33, on another occasion 37. The committee contends that the survey is not conclusive, since it does not cover a broad enough period.

Since the occupancy rate of a hospital is directly proportional to the number of doctors who work there, there are strong doubts in the minds of the Taxpayers Committee that the nineteen practicing physicians can fill the proposed hospital and maintain an average occupancy of 75 percent. The Paso Robles District Hospital with 32 beds has never been filled to capacity in the year and a half it has been operating, despite the fact that nine doctors are working out of the hospital and the next nearest facility is 14 miles distant. Average occupancy of the Paso Robles Hospital is 23 patients, with the number being as low as eight on many occasions. Sequoia, in Redwood City, another district hospital of 100 beds, has lost $70,000 in the first ten months of its operation, despite the fact that there are approximately 100 doctors working out of the hospital.

When the West Valley Hospital was created by vote is 1949, the trustees were empowered to tax the district up to $.20 per hundred dollars assessed valuation. The last session of the Legislature further increased that limit, under certain conditions, to $.25. In addition, the trustees can levy taxes in the amount of $.165 to pay the interest on and retire the $750,000 in bonds. This could mean a tax liability of $.415 per hundred on all property within the district.

In a recent open meeting to discuss the proposed bond issue, the secretary of the board was asked what would happen if the bonds were defeated in the September 18 election. He replied that the trustees could and might levy the legal tax limit, accumulate the necessary funds and build the hospital anyway.

Directors Review Needs For West Valley Hospital As Election Nears

Directors and proponents of the proposed West Valley Hospital stated their reasons this week for favoring the construction of a hospital for the west valley area.

The West Valley Hospital District is an area of approximately 30 square miles with a population of more than 55,000 people. That portion of the county has only one hospital to serve its needs.

The building programs of the O'Connor and Community Service Hospitals will only add approximately 160 beds. In the meantime, the population continues to increase." The directors point out that Santa Clara county has increased 113,000 in population during the past ten years; Redwood township has increased 126 percent and Saratoga township has increased 129 percent. "In spite of this increase in population of the district, the hospital bed space has failed to increase by one bed."

The proponents state that the school idministrators in the district have had to meet the growing influx of students with more and larger building programs. "Hospital expansion has in no way kept pace with the population increase. It is only necessary to talk to doctors or people with hospital experience to know the seriousness of the hospital shortage.

They pointed out that the proposed plan was in line with the government's civilian defense plans of decentralization.

District directors told of the proposed plan for the hospital. "With ten acres of level land bought at a fair price, there is plenty of room for expansion. The hospital will be located in the center of the district as to population and will be easily accessible from all areas,"

"The building will be modern and complete, designed to be built at a maximum cost yet containing major and minor surgeries, x-ray, laboratory, delivery rooms, pediatric wards, nursery, emergency facilities and other equipment and facilities necessary for the successful operation of a hospital.

The directors outlined the cost of the hospital to the people of the district saying that estimates of cost had been made liberal in view of rising costs. "Actual costs are estimated as: $16,500 for land, $105,000 for equipment, $560,000 for buildings, and $85,000 for reserve. The land has been bought and paid for and there are funds on hand to pay architects and consultants fees, insurance and other attendant costs."

"Cost to the average home owner will be approximately 20 cents per $100 assessed valuation tthe first year and less each year thereafter as the bonds are retired. This will cost approximately $4.00 to $5.00 to the average home owner. It is important to remember that these estimates are based on an estimated assessed valuation for the district of 38 million dollars. Actual valuation is 41 million dollars. This will mean of course, that actual costs to the people will be considerable less than the above quoted figures."

Plans for the hospital call for a 50 bed hospital with eventual expansion to 100 beds at a minimum cost; kitchens, storage areas, laboratory rooms, surgical rooms and other equipment and facilities necessary for the operation of a hospital. The hospital will be located on a ten acre site near Vasona junction.

A $750,000 bond election will be held September 18 to raise the necessary money needed for the construction of the hospital and purchase of necessary equipment and payment of other costs involved.

5700 TO ATTEND OPENING DAY IN CAMPBELL AREA SCHOOLS MONDAY

Fifty seven hundred elementary and high school students throughout the Campbell area will take up their books and return to school next Monday morning. With the exception of Moreland School, whose opening has been delayed until September 20 because of unfinished construction, all area schools will start their first day on September 17.

Students in some of the Campbell schools will be on double sessions until completion of construction planned for this year.

Anticipated enrollment for the Campbell Elementary School District is estimated at 3100 with Campbell Grammar School taking approximately 1500 students. San Tomas enrollment is expected to reach 600 before the end of the year and Moorpark is set at 1,000.

Enrollment in the Cambrian School District is expected to reach 700 and Moreland is expected to enroll between 670 and 700.

William C. Henley, superintendent of the Campbell Elementary School District, stated this week that bids for the new Cypress Avenue school will be let shortly with Rosemary and Quito to follow in the near future. Earliest estimates for completion of the Cypress Avenue school are sometime in May of 1952.

Henley stated that the district is receiving an overflow of registrants for kindergarten classes,

Business Solicitations For Fund Drive To Start On September 24

A kick-off breakfast for the business solicitation portion of the Community Service Fund drive will be held at 8 a.h., September 24, in the cafeteria of the Campbell High School.

Solicitors of the house to house portion of the campaign will meet for a kick-off dinner in the high school cafeteria at 6:30 p.m., October 1. A charge of approximately 75 cents will be made for each plate.

Dobie Jeffers has been appointed chairman of the business drive and will be assisted by Boy Scout leaders and members of the Campbell Rotary Club. George Kemp has been appointed publicity chairman for the drive.

Eugene W. Barnes, general chairman of the drive announced that the Campbell district has been broken down into various units. A coordinator has been chosen to head each unit and to arrange volunteer solicitors for the campaign. Coordinators for the various units are Mrs. Richard Gordon, Campbell; Mrs. Lucy Mitchell, Cambrian; Mrs. George Robertson, Moreland; Ed Tablak, San Toman; and Mrs. Eugene Andreas, Moorpark. Coordinator for the Meridian area will be announced at a later date.

Purpose of the annual drive is to obtain funds for the library, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Campfire Girls, Y.M.C.A., Visiting Nurses Association, and the Family Service Association. All workers and officers of the drive are recruited from volunteer help with 99 percent of the funds going directly to these local organizations.

Barnes made an appeal this year to residents of the area who work in other communities to reserve the bulk of their contributions for the local drive. "This drive is aiding our own children and it is only natural that we ask those who donate to consider this community and their own children first."

CRUSADE FOR FREEDOM IN SECON D WEEK

The Campbell drive for the Crusade for Freedom swung into its second week with booths for collections at the American Trust Co., and on the corner of Campbell Avenue and Winchester Road. The drive, part of a national campaign to collect funds to finance a radio Free Europe, includes solicitation on the streets, in the schools and from booths.

Purpose of a "Radio Free Europe is to broadcast to peoples behind the Iron Curtain. The Crusade for Freedom was originated by General Lucius D. Clay to aid in bringing the truth to inhabitants of Iron Curtain countries.

Last year's contributions enabled the construction of a 700,000 watt station in Munich to compete with Radio Prague and Radio Bratislava in broadcasts to Czechoslovakia.

This year's campaign will finance the continued operation of the Munich station and will enable the construction of another station on the Radio Free Europe network.

Garden Club Wins Second Prize At Fair For 'Rainbow' Exhibit

The Campbell Garden Club won second place in the garden division at the Santa Clara County fair this week with their exhibit of a "rainbow" garden. The display was made up of a semi-circle of flowers in colors of the rainbow, curved around the back of a pool. The display of flowers was framed by junipers at the side and to the rear and a lawn covered the center and front of the exhibit.

Members of the club used blue ageratum, aster fricarti, dwarf marigold in orange and yellow, orange-red lantana and fibrous begonia in red and pink. The rainbow colors of the flowers were reflected in the pool directly in front of the display.

Plants and cut flowers for the display were borowed from members and friends of the club's gardens. A number of the plants were distributed to members approximately a month before the fair and then transplanted to the exhibit.

The exhibit was under the direction of Mrs. Robert Dunn who was assisted by Mrs. Olive Parysek as co-chairman. Members of the planning committee included Mesdames N. J. Corvello, J. Levenberg, H. Binley, R. Davis, G. Kolze, P. Heinzen, A. Leal, A. Sloan, W. Ostermeier, L. Brown and J. Cantoni. Other members of the club donated their time and work in preparing the display.

The club won third prize last year for the first exhibit which they had entered in the fair.

Service Guild To Meet Monday

September 17 is the date of the next meeting of the Children's Service Guild of the Santa Clara County Hospital to be held in the Nurse's Home on the hospital grounds, at 1 p.m.

The Children's Service Guild is comprised of women in the Santa Clara valley who devote a small amount of time each week to the entertainment of the convalescing children in the pediatrics ward of the County hospital. The Guild is now in its third year of organized volunteer work, and has accomplished much in that time. One of their greatest desires was to purchase some worthwhile object that would serve to delight all the children in the wards, boys or girls, big or little, and this goal was reached last month when they were able to purchase a 61 key Wurlitzer for the ward. Mrs. Mae Widman, supervisor of nurses in pediatrics, says the little piano has already given hours of enjoyment to the children, and never fails to hold their interest.

Also giving great delight to the children was the gift of a bright new top for the beach umbrella used in conjunction with the sand boxes on the play porch, by Mr. and Mrs. Culver Kennedy of San Jose.

Any woman interested in the activities of the Guild, who would like to know more about this interesting and heart-warming volunteer work, may get in touch with the Guild president, Mrs. Eugen Andres Jr., CY 4-1524. Guests are always welcome at the meetings.

D'Avis-Hauerken Rites Are Held

James D'Avis, graduate of the Campbell High school, chose Marion Hauerken of San Jose as his bride at a recent ceremony in the Grace Baptist Church in San Jose with Rev. Allan Anderson of Tacoma, Wash., officiating at the double ring wedding.

The bride chose for her wedding gown a white satin dress under a lace bodice and nylon net skirt. The dress was styled with net yoke and long lace sleeves. A beaded headpiece held the fingertip veil. The bride wore a string of pearls, a gift from the groom and carried a white orchid surrounded with white carnations.

The matron of honor and the bride's sister, Mrs. Robert Avon, was attired in yellow taffeta. Mabel Shippam and Mrs. William Ellis, sisters of the bride, were the bridesmaids in green taffeta. A cousin of the bride, Annabelle Waltrip, acted as junior bridesmaid, also in green taffeta. The attendants carried fan-shaped bouquets of Esther Reed daisies.

Mrs. Nettie Rich, cousin of the bride, was organist and vocalists were Mesdames Peggy DiBari and Allen Anderson. Best man was Richard Shackleford and ushers were William Ellis, Robert Aven and Charles Rich.

White gladioli arranged in a fan-shape decorated the reception hall where the couple cut a tiered cake before leaving for their wedding trip along the Redwood Highway. The new Mrs. D'Avis chose a gold suit with green and white accessories and an orchid corsage for her going away ensemble.

The bride's mother was dressed in a rose formal with pink accessories and the benedict's mother wore a light blue gown. They had corsages of yellow rosebuds.

Parents of the bride, who graduated from Los Gatos high school, and attended San Jose State college, are Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Hauerken of San Jose. The groom is a graduate of Campbell High school and is a senior in San Jose State college.

George B. Kemps Return From Two Month Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Kemp, 550 Union avenue, and their two children have recently returned from a two and a half month trailer trip through the eastern portions of the United States. They visited Wisconsin, Michigan, New York, Virginia and Washington, D.C. They returned through more than a thousand miles of Canada and visited many of the federal parks in the northern dominion.

The Kemps stated that they were impressed with the lack of fresh fruit and vegetables in the east and commented on the high prevailing prices. In Quebec they saw grapes from Santa Clara County for sale for 65c a pound and pears from the Santa Clara Valley priced proportionately as high. In Wyoming, the price of Santa Clara strawberries was 50c for a small box. They also saw inferior grades of lettuce selling for 35c a head.

While in the nation's capital, the Kemps visited Congress while it was in session and witnessed debate in the Senate on the controversial issue of economic controls. In their visit to the house of representatives, they saw one of the congressmen make a political speech for a number of his constituents in the gallery. The Kemps stated that they tried to see and understand as much of the various branches of the federal government as was possible during their stay in the nation's capital.

They commented on the beauty of the Lincoln Memorial which they visited during their stay, saying that at no time of the day does light from the outside fall directly on the statue of Lincoln. The light enters the building from the front and seems to be reflected up onto the statue by the light color of the marble walls. "The corners of the interior of the building are dark, but the statue of Lincoln seems to glow from the reflected light.

The Kemps also visited Mt. Vernon and other famous and historical points of interest during their trip through Virginia. Coming through the South Dakota Black Hills, they also visited Mt. Rushmore, site of the stone faces of famous presidents.

The Kemps stated that while they throughly enjoyed their long trip through the nation, they were happy to return home and felt that California could offer the most advantages of any state they had visited.

Bergerons Home After Month Tour Of Southern U.S.

Mr. and Mrs. EUGENE J. BERGERON of E. Campbell avenue returned recently from a month's tour of the south, as far as New Orleans and back by way of Kansas. Car trouble plagued them all the way, due to the extreme heat, and being a California car, it was not used to such high temperatures and humidity. However, they did enjoy the trip via El Centro, Tucson, Arizona and to El Paso where they walked over the bridge to Juarez, Mexico, for dinner. At San Antonia they were impressed by the Alamo Monument, and from there the travelers went to Lake Charles and Morgan City, Louisiana, Morgan City is the focal shipping point for the jumbo shrimps, crabs and oysters which are so famed for their succulent delicacies, and the Bergerons enjoyed many a good seafood feast while in the shipping city. Mrs. Bergeron brought back a box of the spice which Louisiana cooks use in their crab cookery pots, and hopes to be able to persuade a local crab shop to cook crabs in the Louisiana manner in an endeavor to get a seafood meal as good as those in the south.

In New Orleans the Bergerons visited with friends and then traveled on to the Bayou La Fourche, where his mother, Mrs. Josephine Bergeron and brother, Joseph Bergeron, operate a sugar plantation.

Points of interest on the return trip included a stay in Shreveport, Louisiana, and New Iberia, where they make the hot sauces, a flash flood in Texas, and a visit with Mr. Bergeron's father, W. H. Stoutimore in Winifield, Kan.. In Flagstaff, Arizona, the travelers were deluged by the torrential rains from the hurricane which hit lower California. Boulder Dam was also on their list and a stop-over in Las Vegas was enjoyed before hitting across the Mojave desert to Bakersfield and then home.

Mrs. Bergeron stated that although they had traveled 5400 miles, they had not seen a bad accident during the entire trip.

Harold D. Ferrari Takes A. M. Curci As His Bride

Annette Marie Curci became the bride of Harold D. Ferrari in a double ring ceremony held recently in the Holy Family Church in San Jose. The rites were performed by Rev. A. J. Roccati, San Jose.

The bride was attired in white slipper satin with a hand-embroidered bodice fashioned with a sheer yoke and scalloped neckline. Hand-embroidered fitted peplum was draped over the bouffant entrain skirt. A fingertip veil edged with Chantilly fell from a satin cloche. Long fitted sleeves formed points over each wrist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, James V. Curci of San Jose.

Marilyn DeVincenzi, cousin of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She was gowned in an orchid off-shoulder ensemble of slipper satin. A fitted peplum draped over the net and satin bellerina length skirt. Her bouquet was of yellow gladioli.

Lucille Ferrari and Eileen Dean were bridesmaids attired in gowns similar to that of the maid of honor. Their bouquets were cascade arangements of orchid gladioli. Attendants wore headpieces which matched their bouquets.

Louis Ferrari, brother of the benedict, was best man. Ushers were Ernest Battau and Sam Anello. Miss Carmel Giacaloni sang "Ave Maria," accompanied by Mrs. John Romani at the organ.

Guests greeted the newlyweds at a buffet supper reception in the Mary Ann Gardens. Decorations included white Esther Reed daisies, dahlias and ivy.

For her wedding trip to Santa Catalina Island and Southern California, the bride chose a turquoise suit with white and black accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The new Mrs. Ferrari, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James V. Curci of San Jose, was graduated from Notre Dame high school. Her husband, now serving in the Air Force, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Ferrari of Campbell. He is an alumnus of San Jose State college.

COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY CITES NEED FOR MORE HOSPITAL BEDS

The Council of the Santa Clara County Medical Society this week reaffirmed the position it took in 1947 concerning the need for additional hospital beds in the area. The group further stated that this situation should be brought to the attention of the public and urged that physicians in the area cooperate with community leaders in the different sectors in question to bring about an early end to the shortage.

The resolution was reaffirmed in response to requests from the practicing physicians in the Saratoga-Los Gatos-Campbell area.

Physicians of the West side who requested the statement from the Medical Society are: A. R. Ness, G. A. Brown, M. B. Jorgensen, Richard E. Braun, Horace G. Jones, Raymond H. Somers, C. C. Smith, Colin Beaton, B. D. Allard and Irving Feldkamp, all of Los Gatos; John E. Cox and Edwin D. Kilbourne Jr., of Saratoga; Thomas P. McNiff, Paul A. Werthmann, J. Frederic Snyder, Robert Wade, W. B. Morrel, and J. C. Johnnnes of Campbell, and Lew Wallace of Cupertino.

Text of the statemen follows:

"The Council of the Santa Clara County Medical Society reaffirms the position it took in 1947 in recognizing that a critical shortage of at least 300 hospital beds existed at that time. Further, it was the Council's opinion then that this situation should be brought clearly to wide public attention, and that the physicians in this area should actively cooperate with the leaders of all community areas in the county to bring an early end to such shortages."

"Although more than $3,500,000 has been pledged or donated for new facilities at O'Connor Hospital and Community Service Hospital, the initial use of those new units is still many months away.

In the meantime, it must be recognized that during the past four years less than 68 new hospital beds have been added to the community's previous total.

"In view of these facts, the Council of the Santa Clara County Medical Society strongly feels that where community interest exists in creating new additional medical care facilities, it should be encouraged and supported in every way possible.

"The year-round over-crowding of present facilities is a constant threat to the general welfare of the population. Although the rapid advance of medical science has greatly reduced the length of hospital confinement following surgery, these advancements have not been able to keep up with the concurrent increase in population.

"It is not the purpose of the Council to enter into local controversy regarding either fund-raising methods or the problems of hospital maintenance costs; however, the Medical Society must continually warn against the possibility of governmental mismanagement or substandard administration by political appointees or electorates. Every effort must be made to have all hospital facilities developed and maintained for the best interest of the patient's care under rules and regulations which have heretofore been standardized by the American Medical Association, the American College of Surgeons, and the American Hospital Association. Mediocre facilities are most often worse than actual shortage."

VOTE NO

on the West Valley HOSPITAL BONDS

Do We Need A Hospital? With expansion programs under way at San Jose and O'Connor Hospitals . . . with planned expansion of the County Hospital . . . . and with the Permanente Foundation negotiating for a site on which to build a completely new hospital, the needs of this area are being more than adequately provided for.

Exclusive of the planned expansion of the County Hospital and any plans the Permanente Foudation may have . . . the number of hospital beds available to serve this area is 1,015 . . . enough to serve a population of 225,000.

At the rate of 4.5 beds per thousand population, which federal authorities claim should be the ratio in this community . . . and the communities which approach the ratio of one bed per thousand are rare . . . this area is very well provided for.

Will $750,000 Build A Hospital? Experience shows that a hospital worthy of the name . . . the kind of a hospital that is full equipped to meet all of the needs of the community . . . cannot be built for $750,000. Even the simplest kind of hospital construction . . . built to meet only the minimum requirements of the Bureau of Hospitals and the State Fire Marshall . . . will exceed the amount of the proposed bond issue.

To build and equip a first class, small general hospital of 50 beds will cost the taxpayers of the district a minimum of $900,000, or $18,000 per bed. The new O'Connor . . . a 250-bed hospital . . . is costing $24,000 per bed.

Can The Hospital Be Self-Supporting? To come even close to breaking even at the rates the trustees propose to charge for patient care, the West Valley Hospital must have a minimum of 40 persons in the hospital at all times . . . that is, it must have an average occupancy of 80 percent of capactiy.

In California hospitals in the 50 bed class, the average cost . . . not charge, but cost . . . is $23.07 per patient day.

How, then, can the proposed West Valley Hospital be self-sustaining, when the cost of operating the hospital is double the average charge?

While it may be true that laboratory fees, operating and delivery room rentals, and out-patient services will earn revenue for the hospital, can it be expected to double the income of daily patient rates?

Who Will Pay? Why, you, the taxpayers of the district, will pay up to $.415 a hundred dollars on your assessed valuation. Any operating deficit will be made up through tax levies . . . interest and principal payments on the bonds must also be met by taxes.

The trustees of the West Valley Hospital District have the power to tax your property up to $.25 per hundred. In addition they can levy taxes in any amount to pay interest on and to retire bods.

For the past two years the West Valley Hospital District has colleced taxes from you totalling $28,000.

BUCS START FIRST WEEK OF DRILLING

Football mentor Jim Muir reported a satisfactory practice for the Buc gridders this week, stating that the Campbell gridmen were doing fine considering the little amount of practice to date. "The boys are ragged on blocking, particularly in the offensive department, but we hope to polish them up with more drill." Muir was queried on the condition of the team following two and one-half days practice.

Practice has consisted for the most part of light drill and assignment instructions in the morning and actual contact work in the afternoons. The teams held a dummy scrimmage Tuesday afternoon with no body contact.

Jim Namba, right half transfer from Lodi, is fitting into the "T" with little trouble after playing single wing in Lodi. Duane Holm is showing promise as a replacement for the Lodi ace and will probably find a spot as defensive half. Paul Pratt, 185 lb. regular from last year is showing promise on offense, but needs more drill on defense.

Muir states that Don Prentlynger, guard on the lightweights two years ago, is showing exceptional ability after being unable to play last year because of work.

Big Bill Gregg, 220 lb. fullback up from the reserves, is a little slow in starting and shows the need for more drill. Don Lukehart, 180 lb. senior, shows up good on defense, but needs more drill on offense. Bob Banks, left end up from the lightweights, is drawing Muirs attention for his good work.

Quarterback spot will probably be filled by Ed West who is showing ability to pass and handle the field general's duties. Jim Shepardson, last year's center, will be unable to play this year because of an eye injury, but Muir is looking favorable upon Ron Eddlemon, junior up from the lightweights, to fill his spot.

Muir states that the boys are doing as good as can be expected for the short amount of practice. "On the whole, I'm pretty well satisfied with the boys. We're a little rough in spots, especially in offensive blocking, but a little more drill should iron that out."

Approximately 70 players showed up for the first days of practice with 35 of them slated for the varsity or junior varsity. Work is keeping an additional six men from practice and Muir expects to see at least forty more out during the first week of school.

Grammar School Grounds Sought As Site For Harvest Festival

Members of the Harvest Festival Committee conferred with the Campbell Grammar School board of education last night to determine the feasibility of holding the festival on the grammar school athletic field. The action followed a move by the Santa Clara County board of supervisors Monday rescinding their previous order to close off portions of the street for the festival. Results of last night's meeting with the board of education have not yet been announced.

A spokesman for the Harvest Festival committee stated that the group was trying to obtain a suitable site for the festival. "We feel that the plans have progressed too far to cancel the event until we have exhausted all the possibilities of securing a proper site." The committee expressed the general feeling that the board of supervisors action in rescinding their previous order to close portions of Campbell Avenue had placed merchants and organizations participating in the festivities in an awkward position. "The board's action was tardy in allowing so much time to elapse between their original decision and their decision to rescind the order.

The board of supervisors cancelled their original order at a meeting Monday on the grounds that the festival was being held to raise money for a special incorporation election. The board expressed the opinion that they did not wish to enter into local politics.

Laurance J. Hill, superintendent of Campbell Union High school district, turned down an earlier request by the committee to use high school grounds because of uncompleted construction at the school.

Date of the festival has been postponed from September 28-29 to October 12 and 13. Booths may be constructed on the morning and afternoon of October 12.

Original plans for the festival called for the construction of the booths by clubs and organizations participating, the selection of a festival queen and merchant participation through special sales. The festival is backed by the committee for Campbell incorporation in an effort to gain funds needed to guarantee the costs of a special election for the incorporation of Campbell.

A. J. Emery is chairman of the festival committee and Mrs. Charles Chubb is secretary.

ROTARY HEARS TALK ON AGNEW STATE HOSPITAL

Dr. Walter Rappaport, superintendent of Agnew State hospital, told members of the Campbell Rotary club of some of the operational methods and problems involved in operating the hospital at the Monday noon meeting of the club. Dr. Rappaport described Agnew as the fifth largest hospital in population of inmates in the state. "Agnew ranks second in admissions, however," he continued. "This means that the discharge rate at Agnew is extremely high and is in contrast to the feeling among the general public that once a person is committed to the institution, he is there to stay."

Rappaport said that the yearly population of Agnew last year was 4112. Value of the establishment is set at $16 million. 1950 budget was $4,300,000 with a per capita yearly cost of $961 per inmate. "This figure includes the cost of food, clothing, and treatment of inmates." Total number of employees at Agnew is 926. He stated that the hospital maintained a large farm and cannery.

"There are three methods of admitting inmates to Agnew," Rappaport told his audience. "A person may be committed by court order, by voluntary commitment, or by doctor's commitment, with the cognizance of the court."

"Patients admitted to the hospital fall into three general categories: alcoholic, narcotic, and mentally impaired or deficient. Every recognized method of treatment is employed to cure patients. Two of the most effective treatments being used at present are the electric shock treatment and the pre-frontal lobotomy, a highly technical operation on portions of the brain. The latter is used only when all other methods fail and the patient has a long record of seemingly incurable afflictions. The lobotomy operation is now being performed at Agnew at the rate of one or two every week. A very effective method of helping alcoholics is to refer them to 'Alcoholics Anonymous.'

William Monez, golf professional from La Rinconada, was inducted at the meeting as a new member.

Last Sunday, a number of Rotarians and their wives were entertained at an outdoor barbecue-picnic held at the Al Smith ranch in the Santa Cruz mountains.

Orchard City Grange Honored At Festivities

Wesley Youngclaus, fair chairman of the Orchard City Grange, was among members of the various Santa Clara County granges who were honored at the Salute to Granges program Thursday noon at the Santa Clara County Fair.

Highlights of the Grange Day included the "Brunch at the Fair" radio show broadcast by a San Jose radio station and featuring the "Santa Clara Valley Farmer" program.

George Sehlmeyer of Sacramento, California State grange Master, was guest of honor during the festivities. Other guests of honor included John C. Gordon, master of the Pomona Grange, and Ray Hays, master of the East Palo Alto Grange.

LOCAL OPERATORS ATTEND MEET

Among those attending the Beauticians convention in San Francisco last week were beauty shop owners Betty Williams of the Realistic Beauty Shop and Annamae Pereira of the Annamae Beauty Shop. The pair witnessed displays of the new fall creations in hair styles.

WATER makes the Central Valley the world's most productive area!

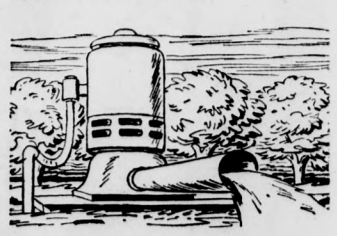
The Central Valley produces 60%, or nearly $1,300,000,000 of California's annual farm income. This huge sum flows into channels of trade, creating prosperity throughout the state—in cities, as well as on farms.

Irrigation of Central Valley farm land increases crop values twenty times and is largely responsible for this being the most productive area of its size in the world.

P·G·and·E·
PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY

WHERE CENTRAL VALLEY'S WATER COMES FROM

Water for the normal irrigation pattern of the Valley is coming this year from the following sources in these approximate amounts:



Electric Pumping from Wells supplies 8,500,000 acre feet of water, or 55%

Natural Stream Flow is diverted to supply 3,900,000 acre feet, or 26%

Central Valley Project makes available this year 1,000,000 more acre feet, or 7%

{ When presently authorized C.V.P. is completed it will supply 2,600,000 acre feet. }

Irrigation District Reservoir regulation makes available 900,000 more acre feet, or 6%

Power Company Reservoir regulation makes available 900,000 more acre feet, or 6%

VOTE 'YES'

WEST VALLEY HOSPITAL BOND ELECTION

SEPTEMBER 18

HERE ARE THE FACTS—

1. At a recent meeting held in the district, Gordon R. Cummings, chief of the bureau of hospitals, California State Department of Public Health, stated, "The number of acute general hospital beds needed in this county, (excluding Gilroy area) is 1122. He said that at the completion of the present expansion programs of the O'Connor and Community Service hospitals, there will be a total of 651 beds. This will leave a deficit of 471 beds!

2. Preliminary plans for the proposed WEST VALLEY HOSPITAL have been approved by the California State Department of Hospitals.

3. The proposed WEST VALLEY HOSPITAL has been endorsed by every regularly practicing medical doctor in the district.

4. The proposed WEST VALLEY HOSPITAL will be built on ten acres of level land with room for future expansion. The site, located near Vasona Junction, in the center of the district as to population, has already been purchased and paid for. The buildings will be modern and COMPLETE, designed to be built at a minimum of cost, yet containing: Major and minor surgeries, X-ray, laboratory, delivery and labor rooms, pediatric wards, nursery, emergency facilities, etc.

5. Thirteen other district hospitals have been operating successfully throughout the State of California, to the benefit of the citizens in their districts. We have always had the best — in schools, homes, local governments, etc., in the WEST VALLEY HOSPITAL district—why should we not expect our hospital to be of highest standards, too?

6. Taxpayers within the WEST VALLEY HOSPITAL district will benefit from the lower rates charged at the proposed hospital. If they spend as little as three days in the hospital in one year, they will save what they pay in taxes by the difference in the lower rate, as compared to rates charged in the city hospitals.

7. In the event of Major Disaster—or War—would it not be better to have our own local district hospital to depend on — or must we be forced to depend on already overcrowded hospitals in neighboring cities? Civilian Defense officials advise "Decentralization"—here is our opportunity to decentralize our hospital facilities.

8. The proposed WEST VALLEY HOSPITAL has been endorsed by many organizations, including Los Gatos Chamber of Commerce and Los Gatos Junior Chamber of Commerce, Lions' Club of Saratoga, Kiwanis Clubs of Campbell and Los Gatos, and hundreds of local citizens including the following:

SARATOGA: — Mr. Virgil Campbell, Mr. Harless Moser, Mr. Herman Deurell, Mr. Anthony Travasso, Mr. Edw. Kilbourne M. D., Mr. John E. Cox M.D., Mr Don B. Wentworth.

LOS GATOS:—Mr. R. C. Groesbeck, Mr. Wm. E. Mason, Miss Nell Berryman, Mr. Orville B. Hanel, Mr. W. R. (Bob) Hamsher, Dr. Gustav Fassin, Mr. S. Dean Balch.

The young growing families of the West Valley Hospital District need this hospital. Further delay will not save money! Let us BE PREPARED to take care of our own!

CAMPBELL REGISTER

Mrs. PEGGY BLANCHARD, a former editor of the Campbell Press, recently made a two weeks trip back to Chicago to visit with her daughter, Miss DILLY POLK, former Campbell High school student, who is now working in the University of Michigan library. While in the east, Mrs. Blanchard visited with her many friends and relatives in the area. Mr. HARRY BLANCHARD is now employed by a Palo Alto firm.

KATHERINE KOLLMER, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. EMIL KOLLMER of 66 N. Milton Ave. left Monday for Louisville, Kentucky, to take a position as director of the Children's Theatre in that city. Miss Kollmer was formerly the director of the Children's Theatre in San Jose.

On doctor's orders, Tony Turturici of the Big Boy Food Mart is resting for two weeks. Too much work and not enough recreation.

Mrs. J. B. ARENDS, JR., of Maple Avenue, returned home recently with her five-year-old twin daughters, EVELYN and GRETCHEN, after spending a month visiting her family and friends in Cincinatti. Mrs. Arends, who made the trip by train, stayed with her mother, Mrs. CARL ROOP, during her visit. While there they enjoyed trips to the zoo and a four-day visit to a farm and meeting with all of their old friends. On the return trip they traveled on the train bringing many of the Japanese Peace Treaty delegates to San Francisco. Mrs. Arends reported that she found the heat almost unbearable while back east.

Mrs. FLORINE PEAKE, well-known Campbell librarian, resumed her post Wednesday after a five weeks absence which was spent in France visiting with her daughter, Miss MARION PEAKE, who is in charge of the International Club at Marly, France, where General Ike Eisenhower has set up his Allied Headquarters.

Mrs. Peake, who flew both ways on her trip, reported a delightful time all the way, and as her daughter had obtained a 30-days leave, they enjoyed a 4500 mile motor trip down to the Riviera and back. Miss Peake has been with the Allied Headquarters for two and one-half years. Mrs. Peake has promised that when she is more rested from her trip, she will be glad to give a fuller report on French conditions. Her post at the library has been ably filled by Mrs. GEORGE SIMONS.

Mrs. ROY STONER and daughter KAY of S. Union Avenue are now on their way home from Europe, having left Norway on a freighter and expect to arrive in Campbell about October 1. The Stoners, who have been gone since May 23, have visited in Italy, Switzerland, Norway, Holland and France, and spent one day in Paris with Mrs. Florine Peake and her daughter while they were there.

RONALD CANTONI, VIC BERG and JIM McMURTRY plan to leave the end of the week for a week's camping trip in the Lake Tahoe region before resuming their studies at San Jose State college. The trio will drive up to the lake.

Mrs. ANNA KRUG of Campbell avenue left Thursday with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. ERNEST ALBERSHARDT of San Leandro for a tour of the Pacific Northwest, with Portland, Oregon, being their first goal. Mrs. Krug, who expects to be gone some six weeks, stated that they intend to go up into Canada for a while, and Yellowstone Park, and may will visit Glacier National Park take the boat trip from Seattle, Washington, to Victoria, B.C.

MAX ROBERTS of Cypress Avenue enjoyed a day of salmon fishing Monday off San Francisco pier.

An Open Letter To The Public

FROM THE SANTA CLARA COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY

In response to a request from all of the practicing physicians in the LOS GATOS-SARATOGA-CAMPBELL area to the SANTA CLARA COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY, a statement was released Tuesday regarding the EXISTING SHORTAGE OF HOSPITAL BEDS in the area.

The statement was as follows: "The Council of the Santa Clara County Medical Society REAFFIRMS the position it took in 1947 in RECOGNIZING THAT A CRITICAL SHORTAGE OF AT LEAST 300 HOSPITAL BEDS EXISTED AT THAT TIME. Further, it was the council's opinion then that this situation should be brought clearly to wide public attention, and that the physicians in this area SHOULD ACTIVELY COOPERATE with the leaders of all community areas in the county to bring an EARLY END to such SHORTAGES."

The council's statement continued: "Although more than $3,500,000.00 have been pledged or donated for NEW facilities at O'Connor Hospital and Community Service Hospital, the initial use of those new units is still many months away. In the meantime, it must be recognized that during the past 4 years less than 68 new hospital beds have been added to the community's previous total.

"In view of these facts, the Council of the Santa Clara County Medical Society STRONGLY FEELS THAT WHERE COMMUNITY INTEREST EXISTS IN CREATING NEW ADDITIONAL MEDICAL CARE FACILITIES, IT SHOULD BE ENCOURAGED AND SUPPORTED IN EVERY WAY POSSIBLE.

"The year-round over-crowding of present facilities is a constant threat to the general welfare of the population. Although the rapid advance of medical science has greatly reduced the length of hospital confinement following surgery, THESE ADVANCEMENTS HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO KEEP UP WITH THE CONCURRENT INCREASE IN POPULATION.

"It is not the purpose of the Council to enter into local controversy regarding either fund raising methods or the problems of hospital-maintenance costs, however, the Medical Society must continually warn against the possibilities of governmental mismanagement or substandard administration by political appointees or electorates. Every effort must be made to have all hospital facilities developed and maintained for the BEST INTEREST OF THE PATIENT'S CARE under rules and regulations which have heretofore been standardized by the AMERICAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, the AMERICAN COLLEGE OF SURGEONS, and the AMERICAN HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION. MEDIOCRE FACILITIES ARE MOST OFTEN WORSE THAN ACTUAL SHORTAGE."

COMMITTEE GIVES REPORT ON POLICE, FIRE DEPARTMENTS

The law enforcement and public safety committee of the committee for Campbell incorporation released the following report on the police and fire departments for the city of Campbell this week. The report includes a suggested budget for the departments as well as suggested number of personnel and amounts of equipment.

ESTIMATE OF THE POLICE DEPARTMENT

Chief—$350.00 Monthly	$4,200	$4,200
Asst. Chief—$300.00 Monthly	3,600	3,600
Two Patrolmen—$275 ea. monthly	3,300	6,600
Police Car (1) equipped with two-way radio		3,000
One-year contract with County Communications		150
Office radio and equipment		1,000
Expense of Auxiliary Police (8 or 10 men)		1,500
Insurance		1,000
Miscellaneous Expenses and Capital outlays		4,000
Total		$25,050

The Auxiliary Police to be covered by insurance and receive a small compensation for time when in Police Service.

Arrangements to be made with the Sheriff's Office to book and quarter prisoners.

The District Attorney's Office for services of Criminologist and expert technical services.

We recommend that Police Headquarters be located in the present Campbell fire house and the fireman on duty handle the incoming fire and police calls.

ESTIMATE OF THE FIRE DEPARTMENT

The expense of operation during the first fiscal year can be held to about $2000.00 over the present budget by using the volunteer department, but after the first year a paid department of four men and about 20 volunteer firemen will be necessary. The additional expense of the paid men will be offset by the reduction in fire insurance rates in the city.

There will be required about 60 additional fire hydrants in the area which lies outside the present Campbell Fire District.

Additional Miscellaneous Expenses	$2,000
30 new fire hydrants at $50.00	3,000
Total	$5,000

Two Campbell Students Enter Cal Poly College

Richard A. Farnham, Route 1, Box 162, and Francis E. Weltz, 340 So. Union Avenue, were among the 675 freshmen and transfer students to register September 12 at California State Polytechnic college. Farnham is majoring in animal husbandry and Weltz is majoring in deciduous fruit. Classes for the more than 2100 students enrolled in the college will start September 17.

Animal husbandry is still the most popular department in the agricultural division, enrollment applications indicate. In the engineering division, a close race exists between mechanical engineering, electronics and architectural engineering. Aeronautics also is a popular choice of the incoming students. In the liberal arts division, teacher training in physical education has drawn the most applicants.

but urged parents to continue to sign up their children. "Some of the children may be temporarily left out of the program until we can hire additional teachers, but I urge parents to continue signing up their children so that we have some idea of the number of additional instructors needed."

A report from the county superintendent of schools office states that the average daily attendance in the three elementary school districts in the Campbell area (Cambrian, Campbell and Moreland) has increased an average of 386 percent during the ten year period from 1940-41 to 1950-51. Moreland tops the list with an increase of 570.1 percent with Cambrian next with an increase in average daily attendance of 373.4 percent for the ten year period. Campbell ranks third with an increase of 214 percent. Largest increase in the county has been in the Union District with a total increase over the ten year period of 1400 percent.

Campbell Union High School District reports an increase of 73.3 percent. Enrollment at the high school is expected to reach 1250 during the fall session.

FELLMAN'S RETURN

Returning from a two week vacation are Mr. and Mrs. F. FELLMAN and children, ROLLY, ELROY and LYNETTE of Sunnyside avenue. The Fellmans spent a week camping in Big Basin and a week visiting Mrs. Fellman's sister, Mrs. CHARLES SUTTON of Oakdale.
